

We reserve the right to make the final decision on whether the party is considered young. A young party is usually one that has no kids, no married couples, no person that owns a home insurance and is in their late 20s or early-mid 30s.

We put forth this clause to accommodate our clients' wishes and to protect ourselves from unwarranted risk – as our experience shows, it is the young parties that break the rules and bring forth unnecessary problems.